

INSULTED BY HOSTILE POLES

Remarkable Affront Offered to Cardinal Gibbons in Baltimore Sunday.

WAS FOLLOWED BY A MOB

Prelate, Had Removed Pastor of Church and the People Were Angry.

A Baltimore special to the New York World yesterday says: A remarkable affront was offered to Cardinal Gibbons yesterday afternoon by a congregation of his own church. The prince of the church was not only refused admission to St. Stanislaus's Catholic Church, but was followed by a hostile throng of members of that Polish congregation into the priest's house.

The insult was the outcome of the removal recently by Cardinal Gibbons of Father Korys, rector of the church, as the result of a scandal in which Father Korys had been involved, and which he himself made public. Recently Father Korys had a cousin and brother priest who was until recently his assistant, but subsequently became pastor of a church in Scranton, Pa., arrested on a charge of writing offensive letters to Father Korys's housekeeper. The charge was subsequently withdrawn, but as a result of the scandal that developed and because Father Korys had instituted criminal proceedings without the cardinal's consent the cardinal removed the priest despite the request of the parishioners that he be allowed to stay.

The congregation has not taken kindly to Father Korys's removal, who was appointed to succeed him. He storm, however, was believed to have blown over, and the cardinal, to please the congregation, consented to officiate at vespers yesterday on the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the church. It was arranged that the cardinal should also confirm a large class of boys and deliver the sermon.

Despite the bad weather the cardinal kept his appointment. When his carriage drove up to the church there was a large crowd about the steps. The cardinal, having no expectation of a hostile reception, entered the priest's house, adjoining the church. He was followed by a crowd of excited Poles, who forced their way in, made a hostile demonstration and caused havoc with the furniture. When they had gotten inside they looked the other way.

The cardinal was taken to a room, and the excited crowd was kept away until the police, who had been summoned, arrived. The mob had looked them out, but Father Korys's housekeeper, charged the mob, using their clubs with effect.

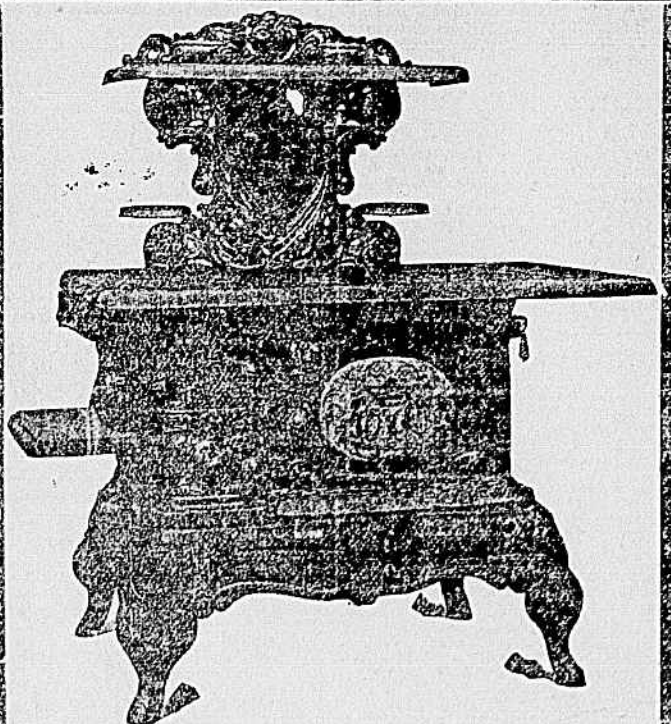

Before the police came the mob shouted to the cardinal that they would not permit him to enter the church unless he would restore Father Korys.

After the mob had been dispersed, the cardinal entered his carriage and drove away.

St. Stanislaus Church has a congregation of 6,000 members, mostly Poles.

We've handled the "Royal" Range shown in this advertisement for the last three years, and have yet to sell the first cent's worth of repairs to any customer. That's the way with all our stoves. We buy stoves just like we always bought furniture. We buy from first-class concerns only, and never consider a second-rate manufacturer. If you want a thoroughly first-class stove of any kind, come to us and you'll get it.

The "Fortune" & The "Mrs. Rorer" Gas Ranges are guaranteed to bake, cook, boil or broil as good as any cooking stove you ever used. If they don't you get your money back.

What could be fairer? In heating stoves we have several of the very best makes in Self-Feeders, Base Burners, Oaks, Open Franklins, Wood Stoves, etc., etc. If you want to be treated right in a stove purchase—that is, getting a first-class stove at a low price, by all means go to

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Richmond's Head Sleuth Goes Forward in Ages in a Quiet Way.

Captain Tomlinson yesterday celebrated his birthday. How old, he would not say. As a student of human nature, Captain Tomlinson, by virtue of his many years in the business, can hardly be excited. He looks older than the mouse does the cat.

There is not a big criminal in the United States who does not know Captain Tomlinson does not carry in his mind, and when one of them passes through this city he has to be mighty quick to elude the eagle eye of the Richmond sleuth.

Captain Tomlinson celebrated his birthday and congratulations were loud and numerous.

HUSBAND AND WIFE, DYING, CABLE DAILY

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—On their dying beds, in Chicago and the other in Paris, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Gibbs twice a day exchange cable messages of love and cheer. The more than 1,000 miles of land and water, which separate them, both know that they can scarcely recover, and each is praying for death to come.

Gibbs is vice-president of the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, and a millionaire. He has been ill two months with cirrhosis of the liver. Within a few days after he was stricken Mrs. Gibbs, who was visiting their daughter in Paris, was stricken by the same ailment.

For a time each essayed to prevent the other from knowing, but eventually it was necessary to brook the news. Every morning and night cables are sent from one to the other. It was hoped that either Mr. or Mrs. Gibbs would rally sufficiently to enable one to be taken to the other but the physicians have forbidden this.

Movement of Ministers.

Rev. J. J. Gravatt went yesterday to attend the meeting of the standing committee of the Diocese of Virginia, at Alexandria. Rev. William D. Smith, rector of St. George's Church, at Fredericksburg, preached at All Saints' Church Sunday morning. Dr. Strickler has returned to the Union Theological Seminary, and will resume his duties there. Rev. W. J. Campbell preached at the Union Theological Seminary Sunday.

The Saving Nations.

In a table covering different countries Prussia has seven among saving nations, following Denmark, Switzerland, Belgium, Sweden, Norway and Germany. Another table, dealing with the average per capita of population, puts France tenth, or behind Denmark, Switzerland, Germany, Norway, Australia, Belgium, the United States, Austria and Sweden.

A Blue Outlook.

Artificial indigo is now manufactured in Germany in large quantities, and the low prices asked for it have enabled the reduce the production of the natural indigo in East India. The latter country exported only 65,000 hundredweight of indigo last year, against 170,000 hundredweight five years ago.

ROOSEVELT TO SPEAK AT THE UNVEILING

President to Receive Emperor's Gift of Statue of Frederick the Great.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., November 14.—The unveiling of the statue of Frederick the Great at the War College on November 15th, will be the most important international event since the visit of Prince Henry.

President Roosevelt has taken the program and his direct supervision, and all the ceremonial which a Republican country can muster will attend the event.

More than two thousand soldiers, representing every branch of the service, artillery, cavalry, infantry, signal service and hospital corps, will form a guard of honor for the President and the German officers when they leave the White House for the grounds where the statue has been erected.

Two officers of the Emperor's household guards have been sent to represent him. They are Lieutenant-General von Loerwenfeld and Major Count von Schmeltow, and they have the additional interest of being direct descendants of two generals who served on the staff of the great warrior, and who were known to have sympathized with the American cause.

The programme for the unveiling will begin with a brief speech from General von Loerwenfeld, giving the statue into the hands of the German ambassador. The ambassador will then present the gift to the President, and will make an address lasting about five minutes.

President Roosevelt is to be the orator of the day. At the conclusion of his address the Baroness von Sternberg will draw the cord which fastens the covering, and when the statue is exposed to view a grand orchestra will render the national anthem of "The Star-Spangled Banner" and "The Watch on the Rhine."

The statue is a bronze reproduction of the marble one by Ulpes, which adorns the Avenue of Victories in Berlin. It is seven feet high and rests on a marble pedestal eight feet high.

WAR-TIME WOOLING ENDS HAPPILY AT LAST

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—A war-time wooling in which a Southern girl heartily rejected the suit of a Northern soldier, has just ended happily by the marriage of the city. Dr. Cleveland Willis Goff and Miss Jane Lawson Uimer, of Savannah, both are elderly and white haired.

Dr. Goff served with a New York regiment, which was stationed for a time at Newbern, N. C., in 1862. There he met Miss Jane Uimer, who was the daughter of a Unionist.

Fidelity to the stars and bars prevented Miss Lawson from openly responding to the advances of the young soldier, but they were good friends. Dr. Goff proposed, but he found that Miss Lawson already was betrothed to James Uimer, an officer in the Confederate army.

It was manifest that Dr. Goff had no show, so he withdrew from the field several years ago. Lately, however, who died several years ago.

Regarded by his friends as a confirmed bachelor, Dr. Goff established a good record, amassed a fortune and traveled extensively. Not long ago Mrs. Uimer came North and hunted up Dr. Goff, and after explaining that they were married a few weeks later.

SISTERS DIE TOGETHER: GIVE BODIES TO SCIENCE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Locked each other arms on the bare floor of a dismally flat in East Fifty-first Street, from which they had been dispossessed on Friday, two sisters, Louise and Yvonne Aiel, 46 and 38 years old respectively, were found dead yesterday, in the mouth of each was a rubber tube, which connected with the chandelier. In the hand of the younger woman was an open letter, written in German, which stated that the sisters had decided to die together after talking over the matter for a week, and requesting that they be buried in one grave. "For this consideration" the letter continued, "we give our bodies for the benefit of medical science." At the same time the women were dispossessed their furniture, which they had bought from an installment company, had been taken from them.
